Mr. Howland Wood, Curator,
Broadway and 155th St.,
New York City.

My dear Mr. Wood:-

Will you give me the name and address of somebody in New York who fills the same wants for stamp collectors as you do for coin and medal collectors.

I have a friend who has just brought in a large number of postmaster stamps, etc., before our first printed stamps.
and I would very much indeed like to put him in the way of getting an honest valuation on them.

Yours very truly,

J. M. Wainwright.

Dear Dr. Wainwright:

The only people that we know of who could give you quotations or buy stamps are some of the dealers. We have had satisfactory dealings with the Metropolitan Stamp Company, 7 West 42 Street, Vahan Mozian, 1409 Broadway, and the Economist Stamp Company, 87 Nassau Street - all of New York City.

Very truly yours

HW C

Curator
